

QUEEN VICTORIA TO SHAPE AFFAIRS

Speech Read in Parliament Next Week

WILL DEFINE ENGLAND-TRANSVAAL RELATIONS.

It Will Describe Operations and the Nature of Police Measures Necessary to Restore British Authority in the Vassal State—Also to Suppress the Systematic Ill Treatment of England's Subjects—Believed That the Natives at Johannesburg Intend to Join Lawless Element of Boers in Creating Disturbances in Hopes of Getting Plunder.

London, Oct. 9.—[Special].—Queen Victoria's speech, which is to be read on the opening of parliament next week, will sharply define the relations between England and the Transvaal. It will describe the Transvaal's operations and the nature of police measures necessary to restore British authority in the vassal state and also to repress the systematic ill treatment of the British subjects.

JOHANNESBURG IN A WILD STATE

Natives Likely to Make Trouble in Hopes of Getting Plunder. Johannesburg, Oct. 9.—[Special].—It is believed that the natives here intend to join the lawless elements of the Boer population in creating disturbances in hopes of getting plunder. Preparations by the natives to attack and loot mines have been discovered. The local authorities are powerless to preserve order and troop will be called from the border to put down any disturbances.

London, Oct. 9.—The two Boer republics have at last shown their hands by demanding a declaration of British intentions, in terms conveying a threat.

The demand was framed during the latter part of the week and is now said to be in the hands of the home government, and a reply is expected by the Boers in short order.

Sunday passed without overt acts, but both the Transvaal and British troops were actively on the move toward the frontiers all day.

The British troops are now in a position to make a strong defense at nearly any part of the border. The Boers are alleged to be dissatisfied on account of the delay and those at the front are eager for action, and, not getting it, find time to complain of a bad commissariat.

Reports here say that many have left the front and returned to their farms disgusted, and it is suspected that these disgruntled spirits may force the leaders not to make an attack in force but to allow the pent-up warlike spirit to be spent in raids.

Stories of Boer brutality continue. The Mail's correspondent at Cape Town relates that Lanham, secretary of the South African league, at Krugersdorp, when about to leave, was kicked to death, and women and children refugees were kept in cold cars on side tracks for hours, causing them great suffering from starvation, and that the Boers are resorting to the Spanish trick of poisoning the springs and the water the refugees drink.

The archbishop of Cape Town says his own conviction is that the only practical solution is an Afrikaner bond, and sympathizes with the appeal to Kruger to yield to Great Britain's claims and to agree on an inquiry into the franchise on a five years' basis. He says further that the real danger of permanent peace in the Transvaal is military oligarchy, which is wholly out of sympathy with British institutions. The total number of reserves called out by Saturday's order is 52,138. Parliament is summoned for Oct. 17 to discuss, as Balfour's letter to his supporters said, "matters of the gravest public moment."

Rumors are again prevalent that Salisbury is working for peace, and it is said that High Commissioner Milner has been authorized to notify President Steyn of the Orange Free State that a settlement can be made if Kruger disarms, grants the franchise and pays an indemnity, which at present would be under $7,000,000.

With the long lapse of time which is unavoidable before the British operations can begin the chances for settlement are obviously considerable.

The mobilization of both the Transvaal and the Orange Free State, President Kruger adds, is satisfactorily completed, and the issue—peace or war—rests with Great Britain. No news of activity on either side comes from the borders. The ambulance trains of the Transvaal are now leaving the frontier.

It is now believed in well-informed quarters that no fighting will take place till the arrival of Gen. Sir Redvers Buller and the subsequent advance upon Pretoria. The army corps will be unable, however, to deliver an effective blow for three months at the latest by which time the Boer commandos will have been gradually reduced in strength, owing to the defection of the farmers composing them.

Kruger Resists Pressure. Pretoria, Oct. 9.—It is said that President Kruger has resisted strong pressure to have him declare martial law and take the aggressive. The burghers strongly oppose the idea that Great Britain should be allowed to gather an army corps on the border, thereby allowing the republic to be crushed.

Steyn Hopes to Secure Peace. Cape Town, Oct. 9.—President Steyn of the Orange Free State urges the withdrawal of troops from both sides of the border pending fresh negotiations, and he offers, in case the imperial government will take up with his suggestion, to go in person to Pretoria and endeavor to secure from Kruger and the raad the reforms demanded.

Orders the Guards to Be Ready. Gibraltar, Oct. 9.—The first battalion of Coldstream guards and the third battalion of Grenadier guards, stationed here, have received orders to prepare to proceed to the Cape. The news was cheerfully received by officers and men.

Leave Russia to Join the Boers. Moscow, Oct. 9.—Popular sympathy with the Boers in their dispute with Great Britain has taken practical form, and 500 volunteers have left Russia for South Africa to fight on the side of the Transvaal in case of war.

INSURGENTS FIGHT WELL

Make a Desperate Resistance to the Progress of Gen. Schwan and Grant

Bacoor, Oct. 9 (via Manila).—The American troops are camping at Novleta. Gen. Schwan, who is Gen. Otis' chief of staff, was in command of one column of the double movement which was made Sunday, while Gen. Fred Grant commanded the second. Before the troops under Gen. Schwan had covered the scant seven miles between Binacayan and Novleta, one American captain had been killed and two lieutenants and fifteen privates had received severe wounds. The rebels fought with the same bravery which has characterized their resistance during the engagements of the past week.

Day was just breaking when the movement from Binacayan began. The troops engaged in the advance consisted of eleven companies of the Thirtieth infantry, commanded by Col. William H. Blisbee; Lowe's scouts; one troop of the Third cavalry, commanded by Capt. Daniel L. Tate; troop K of the Sixth cavalry, under Capt. Hugh J. McGrath; companies C, E and G of the Fourteenth infantry, under command of Major Taylor; Reilly's battery of artillery, a platoon of the Sixth infantry and a company of engineers.

Scarcely a rebel was seen during the short march from Binacayan to Cavite Viejo. When the American troops entered the town they were met by a few scattering shots from a small force of rebels who, after firing, immediately withdrew to Novleta, where the hard fighting took place later in the day. At Cavite Viejo Gen. Schwan's force was joined by 300 marines from the Cavite navy yard, who were under the command of Major Elliott.

The advance on Novleta was resumed. Lowe and his scouts led the way. They struck the insurgents' trenches when but a short distance from Novleta. The trenches were well constructed and appeared to be heavily manned. It was decided to charge on them. The Americans received a terrific volley of rifle fire and artillery from the Filipinos. The line did not stop, however, and the troops under Schwan rushed over the trenches and captured the cannon which the insurgents had used so effectively, because most of the casualties occurred during this charge.

When the rebels saw they could no longer oppose the Americans they withdrew in good order from the trenches and retreated toward San Francisco de Malabon. The American wounded were sent to Bacoor and Cavite. The movement was made with a great deal of difficulty. The rice fields are filled with soft, oozy mud, in which the men often sunk nearly to their waists.

At the same time the men under Gen. Schwan were moving on Novleta. Gen. Grant with a battalion of the Fourth infantry left Imus and advanced along the Zapote river. When San Nicholas was reached the rebels were found to have barricaded themselves behind the stone wall which surrounds the church at San Nicholas. Gen. Grant marched his men up to within 300 yards of the enemy before a shot came from the stone wall. At this range the rebels opened with artillery and musketry. The Americans then charged and drove the enemy back into the village of San Nicholas, where many of the insurgents secreted themselves in the nipa huts and fired at the Americans as they followed the insurgents through the town. Gen. Grant, after taking the town, abandoned it and returned to Imus by way of the Zapote bridge. Three men in Gen. Grant's command were wounded during the fighting.

Continue the Fighting. Manila, Oct. 9.—The advance upon San Francisco de Malabon is continuing.

La Prairie, Oct. 9.—Henry Waite met with a very painful accident, while on his way home from Beloit last Friday afternoon. Bonfire at Madison

Madison, Wis., Oct. 9.—There was a big bonfire on the lower campus of the university Saturday night in honor of the unexpected big score piled up against Beloit in the football game at Milwaukee. Around the fire crowds of cheering students marched, sang and yelled the praises of the football team and "Eat O'Dea's good kicking leg." "They won't do a thing to Yale!" the enthusiastic "rooters" shouted.

The big score has put heart into those who feared this year's team might prove weak when compared to the football men of former years. The general drift of opinion on the campus Saturday placed the probable score at from 11 to 15 to 17 to 0 in favor of the Varsity, but few expressing any belief that the score would reach its actual proportions.

It will contain sketches of old families and prominent representative citizens of today, as far as their cooperation can be secured. If history teaches by example, the lessons inculcated by biography must be still more impressive. It is conceded to be the most desirable method of preserving the records of society, as it perpetuates the individual memories of those who make history, and is in that form of personal narrative most attractive to rising generations. This work will be gotten up in handsome form, and will be accurate and reliable, judging from the plan proposed, and we bespeak for the representatives of the publishers a cordial reception by our public spirited citizens.

An Interesting Scrapbook

If you have not a scrapbook for crests and monograms you may make up your mind that you are behind the times. Every girl who goes in for collecting now has one. An extensive correspondence is necessary to fill the book easily. It is also wise to select for one's friends persons who have their monograms, coats of arms or crests stamped upon their letter paper. Then when the note is received the monogram, or whatever the decoration may be, is carefully cut out and pasted in the scrapbook. Plags of yacht clubs, the headings on the paper of different ocean steamers and fashionable foreign hotels are also highly prized. A particularly old monogram or crest, or that belonging to any celebrity, is regarded as a great addition to the book.

Bright Burners.

To remove discolorations from lamp burners, rub with a brush dipped into acetic acid, wash in soapy water and rub with a dry cloth. Trim wicks just above the lower line of charred portion and clip the corners slightly with scissors. This will give you a truer flame than from wiping or scraping the wick. Never fill the lamps full; leave a small space for expansion and to prevent the oil from flowing over the outside of the lamp. To avoid an unpleasant odor when the lamp is lighted always turn the wicks down well after trimming, so that the oil will not rise to the top and spread to the outer sides of the burners.

Great Feat of a Diver.

The greatest diving feat ever achieved, it is said, was in moving the cargo of the ship Cape Horn, wrecked off the coast of South America, when a diver named Hooper made seven descents of over 200 feet, remaining at one time forty-two minutes under water. An authority states that the greatest depth to which a man has been known to descend does not exceed 200 feet—which is equivalent to a pressure of eighty-eight and one-half pounds to the square inch.

WISCONSIN WILL BE ABLY REPRESENTED

DELEGATES TO GENERAL M. E. CONFERENCE.

Rev. Frank A. Pease, former Presiding Elder of Janesville District included in the List—Meets Next May in Chicago—Marks an Epoch in History of Methodism.

The election of delegates at Waukesha to the General conference of the M. E. church, which will meet next May in Chicago, marks an epoch in the history of Methodism. Wisconsin conference will be ably represented in this end-of-the-century gathering, says the Milwaukee Sentinel. The clerical delegates are Rev. Frank A. Pease, former presiding elder of the Janesville district, Dr. Samuel Plantz, the Rev. J. S. Lean and Presiding Elder C. E. Farmer. The regular lay delegates are Norman H. Brockow and L. M. Alexander. The provisional lay delegates are W. W. Cooper of Kenosha, and Edgar M. Beach of Waupun.

To Admit Provisional Delegates
The provisional lay delegates were elected in expectation that the General conference will pass a law early in its session providing for equal clerical and lay delegation. Every annual and lay conference in the country has passed a resolution in favor of this law, and there is practically no doubt of its adoption. Heretofore, each annual conference has been permitted to elect two lay delegates, no matter how many clerical delegates it was entitled to. With equal lay representation in the general conference, there is no telling what new legislation may be promulgated in the next few years. The next step will doubtless be a provision for equal representation in the annual conferences. These possibilities call for sound conservative Methodists in the general conference, and the general opinion among church men is that the delegation sent by the Wisconsin conference is one of the most able that will come from any section of the country.

The Rev. Frank A. Pease, ministerial delegate, was born in Aztalan, Wis., in 1854. His father, the Rev. F. B. Pease, was one of the leading men of the Wisconsin conference, and was elected to the general conference of 1872. Dr. Pease was educated in Wisconsin, and was in business several years before he took up ministerial work, entering the Wisconsin conference in 1881. He served the following churches: Sheboygan, Lowell, Laramie, Sharon, Wauwatosa and Kenosha, and completed this year a five year term as presiding elder of the Janesville district. He was appointed to the Wausau M. E. church by Bishop Hurst at the annual conference at Waukesha. He was chosen a delegate to the general conference.

NOTES OF BELOIT COLLEGE

Annual Reception Given By the Students Well Attended.

Beloit, Wis., Oct. 9.—The annual reception given by the students in Chapin hall to the students of the college and academy was held in the dining room of the boys' dormitory last week and was one of the most delightful ever held. The room was thronged with students who were received by Mrs. Charles Bacon and C. W. Pearson and Miss Pitkin. The address of welcome was delivered by Mr. Pottier, who gave the guests to understand that the hospitality of the Chapin hall students was most cheerfully extended to them. Prof. E. G. Smith gave an address teeming with humorous remarks. A male quartette, composed of Messrs. Thomas, Buck, Smale and Spensley, sang two selections, and Miss Duncan gave a piano solo.

W. R. Wheeler, J. W. Darling and W. B. Olds went to Durand Friday evening to give a concert in the Rev. C. A. Gage's church. Mr. Gage sang first tenor in the quartette.

The first college rhetorical exercise of the semester was held Saturday morning, and was in charge of Prof. E. G. Smith. It is hoped by the faculty that the students will take extraordinary interest in that work this year. H. R. Mussey, 1900, has charge of freshmen rhetoricals.

The regular athletics have gone into retirement until the freshman sophomore come rush comes off October 14. The College Round Table says the student body is glad that they have not got to be "sissy boys", and propose to show that one need not be a baby to avoid being a rowdy. The rules arranged for the "scrap" will be observed to the letter.

A HIGH GRADE PERFORMANCE

"A Stranger in New York" Delighted Saturday Night's Audience.

Hoyt's farce, "A Stranger in New York" had its first presentation in Janesville at Myers Grand last Saturday evening. The house was fairly packed, in fact it was the largest and most appreciative audience of the season. Of all the plays Mr. Hoyt has presented to the stage in the past, none have made a more favorable impression upon a Janesville audience. It affords the widest scope for the display of versatility and is replete with bright lines, clever and up-to-date people. The songs were of the catchy order, the dialogue keen and penetrating, while the story is a kinesthetic picture of every-day life in the great metropolis. The scenes are laid in New York in what is known as the "Tenderloin" district. The first act shows the ladies' parlor in the Hoffman house and the last act represents a room in the Arlington Square garden. Those present commented most favorably on this scene as a clever piece of stage device, showing the three working elevators. The principal character is Paul F. Nicholson, Jr., who took the part of a "Stranger" and he was well worthy of the part represented. He was indeed a master of his undertaking. His singing was equally good, especially the interpretation of the song, "Don't You Know." There is a strong addition to the cast, in fact every member is an artist, even down to the bell-boy of the Hoffman and all are worthy of individual mention. There was gracefulness, refinement and all the other necessary essentials for a first class performance.

MAJOR TAYLOR IS SINCERE

Colored Bicycle Rider Who Visited Janesville, Wont Ride Sundays.

Major Taylor, the colored bicycle rider who took part in the state L. A. W. meet here last July, has just refused an offer which would lead one to believe that he is sincere in his religious protestations. The fact is that the Major has refused to go to France next year, where he was guaranteed $15,000 for his work. Not that the "Dark Secret" was not anxious to win the $15,000, but his religious scruples stood in the way. After considering the offer a week, Taylor, who is a member of the church, came to the conclusion he could not accept because the contract called for races on Sunday.

INTERVIEW TREAT AND ORTON

Milwaukee Sentinel Reporter Talk with the Two First District Men.

The Milwaukee Sentinel has interviewed J. B. Treat of Monroe, and P. Orton of Darlington, the two First Congressional district men who are mentioned in connection with the republican nomination for governor. Mr. Treat said:

"You may say that at the solicitation of many friends I have been considering the matter, and it is very probable that I shall be a candidate before the next state convention, though I consider it rather too early to make a formal announcement at this time."

Mr. Orton said:

"The office of governor of our great state is a trust which in my opinion no citizen worthy of it has a right to ask until it is tendered to him a proper way. Nor has he a right to decline it when it is tendered. It would be arrogant and conceited for me to assume or believe that I am the choice of the people or the republican party of the state for governor."

"I will say this, however, that if I am ever complimented by such an expression of the confidence of my fellow citizens in me, it will be their voluntary expression, unaided by any act of mine."

GOVERNOR PECK ON BURGLARS

Says Janesville Should Build Duck Blinds and Use Shotguns.

Pecke Says—There is a movement on foot to take the revolvers away from the Janesville policemen. It seems that a policeman shot all one evening at a fleeing burglar, and missed him, while a woman at Muncie, Ind., killed a burglar with a hairbrush, and the Janesville people want the police armed with hairbrushes. The best way would be to build blinds, such as duck shooters have, near houses where burglars are accustomed to burgle, and put policemen in them with shotguns. When a burglar began to work with his jimmy, a charge of birdshot could be placed where it would do the most good, and your burglar would jump like a boxer.

BRYAN AND WATERSON.

In his speech at the Canton, Ill., street fair, W. J. Bryan paid his respects to the trusts, which he said had in the main grown up within the last few years, as the result of republican legislation.

In the same speech, Bryan repeated his threadbare silver arguments.

Henry Waterson, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal, who has been considered an authority on democratic doctrines for many years, says that "the 16 to 1 silver trust" is one of the biggest of the trusts. Bryan extols silver's cause, but says the other trusts are "the result of republican legislation." There is a discrepancy here that the voters will have difficulty in reconciling. Either Bryan or Waterson is in error. If Waterson is right, Bryan must abandon his hobby and proceed to stab it to death. If Bryan is right he should cram Waterson's statements down his throat. However, Bryan does nothing of the kind. He continues to argue for the silver trust, and against, all the others. The people, however, have their own ideas of the matter, and they'll express them in due time.

We note by reference to our esteemed local contemporary, that a party of Janesville men attended a banquet, in Chicago, in honor of "William H. McKinley." For fear that people will get the impression that the party banquetted with some obscure person, we will state that our esteemed local contemporary was in error. The guest of honor at the banquet was William McKinley—without the "H."—President of the United States.

Peck's Sun suggests the catching of the Janesville burglars by building duck blinds for the police. The suggestion, while novel, is hardly practical, as the Janesville police are not skilled in the science of chasing the duck.

It is easy for the leaders to command the rank and file of the democratic party to oppose the flying of the American flag over an army that sleeps upon its arms, but it is decidedly another thing to make them do it.

An Indiana judge has dealt the window glass trust a crushing blow, holding that his court can enjoin the sale of a plant to the trust. The outcome of the case will be awaited with interest.

A Kansas attorney has been convicted of advising a client to commit murder and will receive a heavy sentence. Kansas is redeeming herself.

General Fred Grant's brigade put the Filipinos to route the other day. All the boys, it seems, are not "sapient sons of sainted sires."

Ex-Senator Sawyer, who recently underwent an operation at a Chicago hospital, is gaining rapidly.

Ex-Governor W. D. Hoard has been reelected president of the National Farmers' congress.

And the Beloit-Madison football game appears to have also been in the "no contest" class.

Dewey is now having a rest, but the scare head writers are still working overtime.

Good evening, esteemed Milwaukee Journal! You're next!

The wind is also tempered to the shorn yacht.

Female Students in Germany.
In Germany the number of girl graduates is increasing in a remarkable fashion. Three years ago the ten great schools had on their books 177 female students. At the end of 1897 the total had risen to 347, and whereas in the previous year the girl students were mainly concentrated in Berlin, every university except Munster contributed to the roll of female graduates. At the beginning of this year the total had again increased to 400. Physiology and philosophy are the favorite subjects of the girl graduates, history, art and natural science coming next in order of preference.

MUSICAL NOTES.

The Home Piano—Physical Exercise. The Law of Opposites.

When it is possible, a pupil should have a piano to practice upon that is delicate in action, responsive and sympathetic in tone and have it kept in tune. Half the work of a teacher may be lost by having poor pianos to practice on, vitiating to the ear and demoralizing to the touch. They do their work slowly, but surely, and when a good instrument is before them, they are taken at a great disadvantage because they can not get the best effects from it. They do not know how.

People who have had an old piano in the house for years are often heard to declare "they like the tone so much better than any of the new ones." The ear has become adjusted to the poorer quality and, like the eye when trained in the direction of coars colors, enjoys only the coarse. To educate the people to a higher standard of quality in musical instruments is one of the missions of music and teachers.

A large majority of the piano students are trying to play with stably undeveloped muscles. The flexors, extensors and possibly the triceps are accorded some attention, but the muscles of the upper arm, shoulders, back and waist are entirely neglected. The immense importance of these last mentioned muscles is not adequately realized by teachers and players. Upon a thorough development and control of them depend repose, evenness, equality, speed and ease in passage playing, beauty of tone and power in chord work. The effect of deep breathing upon tone production, power and speed is rarely considered, yet it has a most important effect. The piano student needs a full supply of richly oxygenated blood, and if he would devote 15 minutes upon rising and retiring to regular and systematic physical and breathing exercises he would find the clearness of his thinking and power of concentration largely increased, while the fatigue from his practice would be materially lessened.

Very few people think how much easier it would be, in trying to correct a fault, to take up the opposite fault. The pendulum swings as far to the left as it does to the right and comes to rest in the middle of the arc.

When one aims directly at the point he wishes to attain, he often gets discouraged as he sees so little apparent progress. Something he knows not what, seems to hold him back. He forgets the power of the impulse toward the habit that he has held so long.

Suppose we could take the power that is working against us and compel it to work for us. Would that not be like a fairy tale? Well, we can. By taking the opposite fault we are working directly toward our aim instead of away from it. If one has the habit of holding the wrist too high, let him practice holding it too low. The impulse toward the former habit will bring him to a happy medium.—Etude.

The Fashionable Figure.

The fashionable figure is infinitely graceful, picturesque and lithe in appearance.

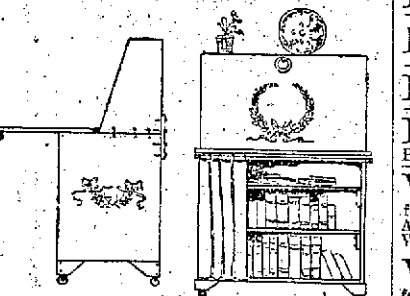

All the new models for autumn show a straight line from under the bust in front to the waist line. The curves are on the sides under the arms and at the back. The back should slope—not round, but slope—in a straight line from neck to waist line and there form a concave curve. Under the arms there should not be a sharp V cut in at the waist line, but a gradual slight spring from the armpit to the waist line, there curving in, and thence curving out over the hips, a sort of "compound curve," as they call it in drawing books, from arm to hip.

The fashionable figure is poised on the balls of the feet, and the chest is kept well up, giving a continuous curve from the shoulder seams down over the bust. The dressmaker who does not study this new model of figure and make the lines of her gowns conform to it fails to make a stylish dress, though it be of cloth of gold wrought by fairy fingers.—L'Art de la Mode.

A Homemade Desk.

The material to be used in a useful desk originally illustrated in The Ladies' World consists of two packing boxes, the smaller one, to be placed on top, measuring 12 inches deep by 18 inches high and 2 feet 6 inches long. The larger box, placed beneath, measures 2 feet high, 18 inches deep and is also 2 feet 6 inches long.

To put this desk together, place the larger box on its side with the lid side to the front; on top of this set the smaller one in the same position. Rip off all the top to within six inches; then saw from this point diagonally, as shown in the side view, to form the desk. Nail the two boxes together, as shown in the dotted lines; then, to make them join more firm and secure, nail a board just over the connection all the way across the back of the box. Rollers are screwed to the bottom of the desk so that it may be readily wheeled about when necessary. The arrangement of the shelf is very simple and needs no explanation. The ornamentation is made with paper mache or linocrusta walton. This desk can be enameled or stained and varnished.

PLEASANT ROCK RIVER SURPRISE.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Vincent Taken Unaware By Friends.

Rock River, Oct. 9.—Last Thursday evening nearly seventy friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Vincent met at their home for a surprise party before their departure to their new home. The evening passed in games, music and supper and at a late hour all departed for their homes, feeling that they had a jolly good time. Mr. and Mrs. Varnum Price and children of Wauwatosa, spent Sunday and Monday at Amos Camp's and S. J. Corlies'. Etta Garthwait of Milton Junction was a caller on the River road Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Balch left Monday for Coloma, Wis., for a visit with relatives at that place. Mrs. Esther Cole of Milton Junction, has been engaged to teach in this district. Mr. and Mrs. Tyreman of Florida, Mrs. Olive Crandall of Milton Junction, and John Stillman of Albion, spent Tuesday at N. M. Rose's. Messrs. Crandall and Lee of Janesville, visited at Mrs. Harriet Crandall's, Tuesday. M. Raybor and Will Marquart have been threshing in this neighborhood the past week. Harry Swader has rented Will Dodd's farm for the coming year. Roy Young of Edgerton, the Orcutt farm, and Homer Balch will stay on H. W. Green's farm another year. Lillian Butler of Whitewater, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Tillie Vincent. Burham of Hebron, visited his son Frank Burham, last week. Erlo Looftoro is still very sick. Mr. and Mrs. Milo Blum of Edgerton, spent Saturday with relatives here. Mrs. Jane Green is on the sick list. Dr. Hull is attending her. Mrs. Gertrude Olson of Fontana, has been spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Corlies. Mrs. N. M. Rose and daughter, Maud, spent Friday in Edgerton. Louise Pullen of Milton; Mr. and Mrs. Tyreman of Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hull and family of Lima; Ethel Butler of Whitewater, and Mrs. Roy Young of Edgerton, attended church services here last Sabbath. There will be a gramophone entertainment at the school house next Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Gray of Milton Junction, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Harriet Crandall. Last Tuesday eighteen of the children, grand children and relatives of Mrs. Mary Garthwait gathered at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Ashley, to celebrate her 93rd birthday. After spending a pleasant day all departed for their homes hoping she would live to enjoy many more birthdays. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burham and children visited Monday and Tuesday with friends at Jefferson and Fort Atkinson. Raymond Talbot preached his farewell sermon at this place last Sabbath. He has lately returned from the east, where he has been for the past few weeks for his health, but as he has not improved, it will be impossible for him to stay longer. During the three years he has been here he has won the friendship and respect of all and all regret that he is compelled to leave the church.

An Embarrassing Situation.
An embarrassing state of affairs for a number of newly married couples has arisen in Algiers through the suspension of the deputy mayor. An irregularity has been discovered in his appointment, which therefore becomes null and void. But directly after he occupied the position he celebrated a number of marriages, all of which are now declared to be equally null and void as the mayor's appointment. They will have to be married over again.

Like the Money Question.
A story is told of a young man in England, a great chess enthusiast, who was so annoyed at his failure to solve an apparently simple problem that he vowed he would neither sleep nor eat until the solution was found. He shut himself up in a disused room and was found four days later by his relatives terribly emaciated and out of his mind. He spent a year in a lunatic asylum as the result of his rash vow, and the problem remains unsolved.

Meaning of Hissing.
Hissing means different things, according to where you happen to be at the time. In West Africa the natives hiss when they are astonished; in the New Hebrides when they see anything beautiful. The Basutos applaud a popular orator in the assemblies by hissing him. The Japanese, again, show their reverence by a hiss, which has probably somewhat the force of the "hush" with which we command silence. In this country the hiss only has one meaning—disapproval.

HIBERNIANS AT COLUMBIA HALL

HELD INTERESTING MEETING YESTERDAY

Were Addressed By National President Keating and State Secretary Riley—Excellent Program Was Given in the Evening—Local Order Prospering Under Good Management.

Hibernians and their friends held two interesting meetings yesterday in Columbia hall.

What made the gathering of special interest was the presence of National President J. T. Keating and State Secretary T. W. Reilly, both of whom gave interesting addresses.

At 2:30 o'clock p. m., forty members of the local order assembled, and for a half hour listened to a stirring address by National President Keating. During his remarks he frequently congratulated the local order on the good showing made, and saw no reason why the future should not have in store the brightest prospects. He appealed to the members present that it was their personal duty to see that every young man of Irish nationality joined the society, for in time it made better citizens of them.

At the close of the afternoon session every member present went away a better Hibernian and a better American.

At 8 o'clock in the evening in the same hall, an open session was held and long before the opening number on the program was called every seat was occupied.

A large number of ladies were present. On the platform with the speakers were seated: Dr. M. A. Cunningham, Rev. Father Goebel, J. J. Cunningham, John Heffernan and others.

After a well rendered selection by Prof. Johnny Smith's orchestra, Dr. Cunningham, as chairman of the meeting, introduced National President Keating who gave a short but to the point address in regard to the work the Hibernian societies are doing in the country.

Mrs. James Connors then gave a vocal selection that was rendered in a way that brought forth many warm compliments.

Prof. Thiele was next on the program, but owing to illness was prevented from attending. In his place D. D. Bennett rendered a vocal selection that was well received.

Miss Mamie Norton followed with a vocal number that was most pleasing. Miss Gertrude Casey at the piano, and William McGue, violinist, gave a duet that proved to be one of the musical gems of the evening.

Miss Fannie Dooley was on the program for a comic recitation and to say that she pleased those present is too mild an expression.

Miss McClernan at the piano, rendered a solo that plainly indicated that she was master of that instrument.

Joseph Burns then gave a recitation, which was followed by a vocal selection by George Hatch. Both numbers were well received. Mr. Hatch was obliged to respond to an encore.

State Secretary Reilly was then introduced, and gave a most worthy address. He frequently paid the ladies a compliment, stating that without their aid the society would be hindered much in its good work.

Miss L. Bourgmeier rendered a vocal selection that was one of the pleasing numbers on the evening's program.

Prof. Smith's orchestra played the final number in their usual faultless way.

Capt. Casey of the Hibernian Rifles, Chicago, was on the program but was prevented from attending.

The meeting was a most successful one and the members of the local order are to be congratulated on the excellency of the program.

Sixty members, in good standing, now constitute the membership list of the local Ancient Order Hibernians with officers as follows:

President—John P. Heffernan.
Vice President—James Riley.
Recording Secretary—Chas. Brierty.
Financial Secretary—F. J. Malone.
Treasurer—Patrick Cantwell.

TOO MUCH STUDY CAUSED HIS DEATH

G. FRANCIS CUDEBACK DIES SUDDENLY.

His Parents Left Janesville Saturday to Visit Their Son Whom They Found a Corpse—Graduated From High School—Was Popular Student—Rev. Denison's Brother Dies.

G. Francis Cuddeback of this city, died suddenly Saturday morning, at 3 o'clock, at the state hospital at Mendota. Death was the result of brain fever, contracted as the result of over-study at school. Not knowing of their son's serious illness, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cuddeback left their home in this city, Saturday, to pay their boy a visit and bring him home, providing the attending physician recommended such.

On reaching Mendota, the anxious parents were confronted with the sad news for the first time. Kind friends did all in their power to comfort the bereaved couple.

The body was prepared for burial and shipped to this city, arriving here Saturday evening.

Mr. Cuddeback was born in Fowler, Clinton county, Michigan, Oct. 17, 1874. When his parents moved to this city, he entered the Janesville High school and graduated in the class of '95. From here, Mr. Cuddeback moved to Whitewater, where he entered the Normal school. Several weeks ago he began to act strange and it was then, for the first time, his parents noticed that his mind was unbalanced. Last week his parents decided that they would leave Whitewater and return to Janesville in hopes that the change would benefit their son's health. The unfortunate young man seemed pleased and stated that he fully realized that he was not responsible for what he did at times and that all he needed was to drop his work at the Normal school.

From the River-view Park home this afternoon at 3 o'clock services were held conducted by the Rev. A. C. Kempton, pastor of the First Baptist church. The pall bearers were members of the High school as follows: Victor Marquissee, Harry Atwood, Allen Lovejoy, and George Farmer. At the close of the services the remains were tenderly laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery.

F. W. Denison.

Rev. Robert C. Denison, pastor of the Congregational church, left for Godfrey, Ill., on a sad mission Saturday evening, having received a telegram during the day, announcing the death of a brother.

Findlay W. Denison, which occurred the same morning at Godfrey, Ill. Friday, word was received of his brother's illness. Mrs. E. A. Denison, the mother, who was visiting here, sent a reply, asking if her presence was desired, but the sad news of the death was soon after received, and Mrs. Denison left Saturday morning, but was joined in Chicago by her son, Rev. Denison.

Findlay W. Denison was about thirty-four years old, and was unmarried.

Two Edgerton Men Plead Guilty Today

THIRD DENIES DIRECT COMPLICITY IN ROBBERY.

Judge Fifield Decided to Adjourn the Case Until Tomorrow to Give Tobacco Town Witnesses a Chance to Testify—Bruce Creates a Sensation in Court.

Thomas Mallory, William A. Bruce and Joseph Zander, the three Edgerton thieves, were escorted into the municipal court by Chief Hogan and Turnkey Brown this morning charged with the crime of burglary. Bruce and Zander pleaded guilty to the information, while Mallory stoutly denied direct complicity in the affair and entered a plea of not guilty. He claims that he was not a party to the actual crime, but the Edgerton officers found him largely in evidence at the division of the spoils and Judge Fifield decided to adjourn the case until tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock, to give several Edgerton witnesses an opportunity to testify.

Bruce created quite a scene in court this morning, when with a burst of eloquence he declared that he would rather spend five years in the pen than one more day in the Rock county jail. He wound up by asking his honor to sentence him then and there, but Judge Fifield turned a deaf ear to his touching appeal and deferred sentence until tomorrow. In connection it should be stated that Bruce is one of the men that Turnkey Brown "soaked" when they attempted to escape the other day. Hence his desire to leave as soon as possible.

The trio were arrested October 1st at Edgerton, for burglarizing the store occupied by the Hains Hardware company and John and May Spencer, jewelers. They entered the place boldly in broad daylight and after they departed a hasty inventory found the following articles missing:

93 pocket knives, value $44.70.
3 revolvers, value $13.
10 razors, value $15.75.
16 watch chains, value $62.50.
38 gold rings, value $25.
40 gold plated watch charms, value $36.
10 gold plated scarf pins, value $7.50.

Michael Mulcairns was arrested by Chief Hogan, Saturday night, on the charge of assault and battery, the complaining witness being Mary Mulcairns, a sister of the defendant. Mulcairns appeared this morning and the case was adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. His bail was fixed at $200, in default of which he was returned to jail.

Hugh Miller, he, of the abnormal thirst, was up again on the old familiar charge, drunk, and disorderly. He pleaded guilty and was fined $3 and costs. He scorned the fine, and went down for twelve days.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

CHURCH TO HAVE PROPERTY.

Government to Turn Over Valuable Holdings to the Archbishop.

Washington, Oct. 9.—The administration intends to announce soon that church property in the Philippines to the estimated value of $20,000,000 has been turned over to Archbishop Chappelle as trustee for the various bishoprics which are to be formed under his administration. The ostensible benefit and apparent enormous advantage of such a disposition of the property to the Catholic church lie in the fact that all of it before the American occupation of the islands was vested in the crown of Spain and passed with the archipelago into the possession of the United States.

Archbishop Chappelle, through whom the property is to be restored to the church, was recently appointed apostolic delegate to the Philippine islands. The president does not recognize Archbishop Chappelle in his capacity as a representative of the vatican, but he can recognize him as a representative of the Catholic church of the United States, of which the Philippines form a part, until otherwise decided by congress.

THE SAME ISSUES, SAYS JONES.

Predicts Campaign Lines in 1900 Will Follow Those of 1896.

New York, Oct. 9.—Senator James K. Jones of Arkansas, chairman of the democratic national committee, signified his return from Europe Sunday by declaring that William McKinley and William Jennings Bryan will again be the opposing presidential nominees in 1900, and that practically the same issues will rule in 1896, with the addition of "imperialism."

As to free silver, he predicted the issue of 1896 would find more supporters than in 1896.

Among the prominent men who called on Senator Jones during the day was George Fred Williams, member of the national committee from Massachusetts, and it is presumed there was a conference over plans for the coming campaign.

After Insurance Companies.

Portland, Ind., Oct. 9.—What promises to be one of the greatest legal fights ever inaugurated in Indiana began today when the suit brought by Nathan B. Hawkins, cashier of the Citizens' bank of Portland, against sixty or more insurance companies having agents in this city was called for trial. Mr. Hawkins alleges that the insurance companies have effected a combination or trust for the purpose of keeping up the rate of premium, and are doing this through a local board of underwriters, composed of the agents in business here. Hawkins seeks, therefore, to enjoin the companies from doing business. The insurance men do not seem to be worrying over the situation, taking the view that the law of the state is not sufficiently strong to touch them. In fact, this view is backed up to a considerable extent by the opinion of the Indiana attorney-general.

Topeka Awaits Heroes.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 9.—Anticipating the arrival of Gen. Funston and the fighting Twentieth Kansas regiment at San Francisco at some time Sunday, all the ministers of Topeka churches agreed that in case a bulletin came announcing the regiment's arrival the services were to be discontinued ten minutes, when the church bells and pipe organs would deal forth praise for the returning heroes. All the steam whistles and bells in the city are to be turned loose when the Tartar is sighted at San Francisco.

Meeting of Christian Church.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 9.—The jubilee convention of the Christian church, which meets here Oct. 13 to 20, will attract the leading lights of that denomination. The convention is international. Dr. F. D. Power of Washington, former chaplain of congress, and President Garfield's pastor, will preside over one session. Ex-Gov. F. M. Drake of Iowa will speak, as may also T. W. Phillips, a member of the United States labor commission.

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 9.—A serious stabbing affray occurred at Knightsdown Saturday night. Waite Heaton, a banker, is alleged to have stabbed Joseph Alspaugh. The men are aged 60 and 55 years respectively. The trouble is alleged to have originated over a business deal.

Splendid Welcome Given the Nation's Chief Executive.

NEGRO CITIZENS HONORED.

Mr. McKinley Attends Services at Their Church—Prominent Men Speak at the Marquette Club's Banquet—Postoffice Corner Stone Laid.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—President McKinley gave up Sunday chiefly to religious devotions and to a social visit with relatives, though a part of his morning hours was taken up with calls by committee members at his rooms in the Auditorium Annex. He attended three religious services during the afternoon, but in doing so entered only one temple of worship, and that was a church of the negroes—Quinn chapel. Here the president sat in the pulpit and listened to the joyful singing of 3,000 people, and then made a speech.

Among the visitors of President McKinley was a group of Illinois politicians, including John M. Smyth, Martin B. Madden, E. R. Brainerd, Zina R. Carter, and Graeme Stewart. They were closeted with the president for some time, but denied that their visit had any political significance. Other politicians, however, freely hinted that the party had some political purpose in view in paying the visit.

Today President McKinley was kept busy. He started at 9 a. m. from his hotel for the corner-stone exercises. After laying the stone and partaking of a necessarily hurried luncheon at the Union League club at 12:30, he started for his position in the first division of the Chicago day parade, which, on its arrival at the grand stand, he left and saw the rest of the pageant pass in review. The Chicago club entertained him then till 6:30, when he went to review the all-nations parade. Later he was chief guest and speaker at the banquet at the Auditorium.

A committee of Omaha citizens, headed by Mayor Frank E. Moors, Edward Rosewater and Col. Mulford of the First Nebraska volunteers, had the "good-night" audience with the president. They want Mr. McKinley to make their city on his way back from the Dakotas. He will meet them again and give a decision.

Banquet at the Marquette Club.

Saturday night 1,000 banqueters sat down to dinner with the nation's chief executive at the Marquette club's feast in the Auditorium hotel. At the banquet Archbishop Ireland advocated the sure restoration of order in the Philippine islands, Secretary Elihu Root praised the present work of the American soldiery and the president spoke briefly. Mr. McKinley was an interested listener to all of the speeches, vigorously applauding every reference to high patriotic ideals, the prosecution of the war and "sound money." Addison Ballard spoke to "All Chicago," after which Secretary Root defended the American fighters in the Philippines from slanders. Senator Charles W. Fairbanks eulogized the national administration.

Climax of Chicago's Festival.

Monday was the climax of the festival. It brought Chicago day with its parade and banquet, the laying of the corner-stone of the federal building, the parade of all nations, and numerous public appearances of President McKinley. The ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the new postoffice building was performed by President McKinley, Secretary Gage and Postmaster-General Smith.

Welcome the Canadian Premier.

Three thousand Chicago French-Canadians cheered themselves hoarse in their welcome to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his delegation of compatriots at Studebaker hall Sunday afternoon. French was the language of the hour, and both guests and hosts betrayed in word and action their joy at a return to their hereditary tongue. Sir Wilfrid spoke for half an hour, reciprocating the welcoming words of his countrymen and epitomizing the international relations existing between the United States and Canada. He was followed by the Hon. C. A. Pelletier, speaker of the Canadian senate; the Hon. R. Prefontaine, mayor of Montreal, and L. O. David, clerk of Montreal, who addressed the assemblage in similar vein. D. A. Lapointe, the president of the committee of French-Canadians, introduced the first speaker, Z. P. Brosseau, who delivered the formal welcome to the premier and his colleagues.

Mexican Visitors Rest.

Don Ignacio Mariscal, minister of foreign relations of Mexico, rested Sunday, remaining quietly in the hotel, and, for the greater part of the time, in his own room at the Auditorium Annex. There was no formal church-going on the part of the Mexican visitors. Senator Mariscal did not attend mass, but the younger members of his party went by ones and twos to mass. Senator Mariscal, after remaining indoors all day, went out in the evening to hear the Mexican National band play.

Eight Governors in Chicago.

Eight states and territories are represented by their governors at the fall festival, and one more, Florida, by a member of the governor's staff specially designated for the purpose.

Philadelphia and Boston will fight it out with each other for second place this week. The standing:

BOSTON TO ENTERTAIN DEWEY.

Elaborate Program Is Arranged for Friday and Saturday.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 9.—The subcommittee sent to Washington to arrange with Admiral Dewey for his visit to Boston returned Sunday night. The members had a pleasant interview with the admiral and he agreed to all the propositions they submitted.

The plans provide for Dewey's arrival Friday night, when he will be escorted to a hotel by Grand Army of the Republic posts and Spanish war veterans. Saturday morning the admiral will be escorted to the city hall, where Mayor Quincy will present him with a $1,000 diamond-studded watch, the gift of the city. Later he will meet the school children on Boston common and review a parade of the state militia, crew of the Olympia and marines from the navy yard. In the afternoon he will witness the return of the regimental flags by Massachusetts troops who served in the Spanish war. In the evening Gov. Wolcott will give a dinner at the Algonquin club to the admiral and the officers of the Olympia. The admiral on Sunday will return to New York. It is expected that 20,000 men will be in the parade, and that 1,000,000 persons will visit the city.

Yachts to Race Every Day.

New York, Oct. 9.—Because of three consecutive failures the Columbia and the Shamrock will sail every day until the possession of the cup is decided. That is the decision reached at a conference between the Royal Ulster and New York Yacht clubs. The new agreement, however, does not take effect until after Thursday's race.

New York yachtsmen are not at all confident that the Columbia will be able to keep the cup at home. The showing of the Shamrock in unsailed races has made them extremely nervous, and Saturday's race, though it lacked a finish, indicated at every point that the Shamrock was much the faster boat and almost made up for the handicap of being poorly handled.

Tuesday's race will be sailed over the course laid for the first race, and over which three futile contests have been sailed—fifteen miles to windward or leeward and return.

Fifty Steamers Chartered. Liverpool, Oct. 9.—Thus far fifty steamers have been chartered here by the government for use as transports.

From Mrs. Sunter to Mrs. Pinkham.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 76,244]

"One year ago last June three doctors gave me up to die, and as I had at different times used your Vegetable Compound with good results, I had too much faith in it to die until I had tried it again. I was apparently an invalid, was confined to my bed for ten weeks. (I believe my trouble was ulceration of womb).

"After taking four bottles of the Compound and using some of the Liver Pills and Sensitive Wash, at the end of two months I had greatly improved and weighed 155 pounds, when I never before weighed over 138. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine I ever used, and I recommend it to all my friends."—Mrs. ANNA EVA GUNTER, HIGGINSVILLE, MO.

Mrs. Barnhart Enjoys Life Once More.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I had been sick ever since my marriage, seven years ago; have given birth to four children, and had two miscarriages. I had falling of womb, leucorrhoea, pains in back and legs; dyspepsia and a nervous trembling of the stomach. Now I have none of these troubles and can enjoy my life. Your medicine has worked wonders for me."—Mrs. S. BARNHART, NEW CASTLE, PA.

SOME ACTIVITIES OF WOMANKIND.

BY
CRAWFORD.

"What will not woman, gentle woman, dare?"
—Southey.

The young women in California who are successfully filling occupations held exclusively by men in most communities are subjects of interest and discussion among the throngs of tourists who visit the Pacific coast for the winter season.

Among those who have taken up novel and unusual lines of work for women are Mrs. Olive Mason Strong, who runs a sawmill and shingle factory in the San Jacinto mountain district; Miss Mary Simpson, who is a deputy sheriff in San Francisco; Mrs. Mary A. Costa, who is a bank cashier at San Jose, and Miss Jennie Vincent, who is a pilot in the harbor of San Pedro.

Miss Vincent is probably the only woman steamboat pilot in the world and is a slight, blue-eyed, fair-haired little lady of 22 years. Some time ago she successfully passed the examination required by the board of pilot-commissioners and received the usual certificate. She now pilots Pacific coast steamers into San Pedro and San Diego harbors and expects soon to have a position in the pilot service in San Francisco bay.

Pittsburg has the distinction of having the only woman in this country, if not in the world, who is at the head of a large steel and iron business. The woman who holds this unique position is Miss Y. R. Baumgarten.

Frau Cora von Butzingslowen, one of the most distinguished of the delegates to the International Council of Women in London, has accomplished substantial reforms in the prison system of Germany, to which she devotes much attention.

The Pennsylvania W. C. T. U. celebrates its twenty-fifth anniversary this autumn. Among the most prominent members of the state union is Mrs. Rebecca Ballard-Chambers of Philadelphia. She is a native of Ohio and first entered reform work during the "crusade" in 1873, being herself an "original crusader" with her mother, who was secretary of the Canton Crusaders. The Society of the American Women in London, which was formed not long ago, is already a great success and has a membership of over 100. It is founded somewhat on the lines of Sorosis of New York and is social, literary and educational in its character. Mrs. Hugh Reid Griffin is president of the society.

Miss Marion Cockrell, daughter of Senator Cockrell of Missouri, who is admired in many social circles from Washington to San Francisco for her unusual beauty and charming manner, has been invited to christen the Missouri when that battleship is launched.

The Viennese Tugendbund, or League of Purity, which is composed of chorus girls of the Imperial Opera of Vienna, has received the distinguished approval of Emperor Francis Joseph, who has ordered his opera director to promote them as fast as their abilities will warrant.

Franklin Reingruber, the president of the league, has been advanced to play the title role in "The Maid of Orleans" and is drawing big houses.

Mrs. Marion M. Cook is the press agent for the Lombardi Opera company. She is a clever woman, with an experience of five years in newspaper work.

Mrs. William Butler Duncan, Jr., a member of New York's fashionable society, is an expert yachtswoman, if the term is admissible. She was voted the bravest woman in the Newport colony because she defied the fierce storm and heavy sea and helped to sail the yacht Esperanza in its victorious race off Newport recently for the Morgan cup.

Among the veterans who attended that Grand Army encampment in Philadelphia was Mrs. Ellen E. Nash of Buffalo. She is fairly entitled to the distinction of being called a veteran and has a war record that few women can match. She enlisted with her husband in the One Hundredth regiment, New York volunteers, in 1861 as regimental nurse and served three years, sharing the hardships and privations of the regiment on the peninsula with the Army of the Potomac, being on the firing line in front of Yorktown, at Williamsburg, Seven Pines and Fair Oaks.

Mme. Loubet, wife of the president of the French republic, is described as a rather stout, gray-haired woman with a very motherly manner and a soft, gentle voice. She puts on no airs and is democratic and economical.

The largest collection of orchids in this country is owned by Mrs. George B. Wilson of Philadelphia, whose conservatories are the Mecca of horticulturists of two continents. Mrs. Wilson is now in Mexico directly overseeing the work of her agents there, who are searching for Mexican orchid wonders.

Mrs. Mary S. Knowles has taught the infant class in the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Sunday school at Delaware, O., continuously for 30 years.

In a recent letter on Canada in the London Times Miss Flora Shaw pointed out the great need for women home-makers in the newly settled districts, especially on the prairie farms of the Canadian northwest. Following Miss Shaw's suggestion, it is proposed to establish in connection with experimental farms training schools or training homes for women colonists. The course of training would embrace dairy work, poultry raising, kitchen gardening, the art of cookery, laundry work, some instruction in the use of carpenter's tools, so necessary in a new country, and a course in first aid to the injured, so that the woman colonist would be qualified to treat gunshot wounds, lacerations, frost-bites, burns, etc.

Senorita Mercedes Gensana, daughter of a rich Porto Rican, recently arrived in Grand Rapids as the bride of George Martin, an American soldier who had won her heart. Her husband now works in a furniture factory.

Dr. Julia Holmes Smith, recently elected dean of the National Medical college, Chicago, is the first woman to occupy this position in a coeducational medical school.

Miss Millie Eldridge, who rejoices in the honorary title of colonel and who is the officially adopted daughter of the Missouri department of the G. A. R., is a very pretty young woman of 20. Her home is in Springfield, Mo. Her father is Major J. T. Eldridge, a prominent veteran.

She has also been adopted as a sister by the Missouri department of the Sons of Veterans and is a member of the Woman's Relief corps. She wears a colonel's uniform with the exception of the well, she wears a skirt and she carries a sword.

Living in a Tennessee mountain cabin has been discovered a young woman who is a natural poet and artist of rare ability. Through the influence of a Chattanooga woman she exhibited some of her work in the competition of the Chattanooga Art Students' league and won the first prize, although she had never taken a drawing lesson in her life.

An 18-year-old California girl recently inherited $4,000,000.

Paris is just now raving over a new stage beauty, Mlle. Henriot.

Celeste Mogador, who as the Countess de Chabrilan was celebrated as the only woman of whom the Empress Eugenie was jealous, is living in poverty in Paris. The famous beauty which dazzled Napoleon faded long ago.

Mme. Yacco, known as the Japanese Ellen Terry, is passing through America on her way to the Paris exposition.

Mrs. Ballington Booth is again the topic of interest to women throughout America. The recent announcement that a millionaire woman of New York, a leader of the old Four Hundred, had resolved to donate all her money to the Volunteers and to devote the remainder of her life to the cause and that she had been persuaded to do so through the preaching of Mrs. Maude Ballington Booth calls attention again to this remarkable woman and the beautiful life of self-sacrifice which she is leading.

Australia is just beginning to blossom out as a producer of literature. Already a clever young woman, Miss Louise Mack has written two charming books which have attracted no little attention. One of these is entitled "When the World Was Young." Another volume, called "Teens," describes girl life in Sydney and is typically colonial. She is now writing a story of Australian life and regularly contributes a woman's letter to the Sydney Bulletin.

Miss Elsie French, the fiancée of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, is a very pretty girl of 18, possessed of an independent fortune in her own right amounting to nearly $5,000,000. She is of excellent family and in no wise objectionable as a match even for the principal heir of the enormous wealth of the Vanderbilts.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN IS VERY SICK.

Democratic Leader Stricken at Fred E. White's Home in Iowa.

Webster, Iowa, Oct. 9.—William Jennings Bryan is a very sick man. Friends who spent Sunday with him at the farm of Fred E. White, democratic candidate for governor of Iowa, three miles from Webster, are afraid that Mr. Bryan may have temporarily to abandon his campaign work not only in Iowa, but in Kentucky and Ohio. A local physician who was called in to treat the distinguished invalid recommended a long term of absolute rest and quiet.

It is understood that steps will be taken by interested friends to cancel Mr. Bryan's engagements, which include two and three speeches daily and a tour covering the width of Iowa, ending at Sioux City Saturday.

Better Trade for the World.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—The international commercial congress will convene in the auditorium of the national export exposition here next Thursday.

Assistant Secretary of State David J. Hill, who will preside at the opening ceremonies, will deliver an address of welcome to the foreign delegates. The full diplomatic corps at Washington will be present and several members of the cabinet will take part in the exercises.

President McKinley, who will be in the west, will participate in the opening of the congress by sending a message announcing the sympathy of the United States in the movement, and extending on behalf of the government from its executive head a cordial greeting to the delegates. The congress will enter into a general discussion of the world's trade, with a view to suggestions for the regulation of foreign commerce in such a way as to provide for its greatest development consistent with native interest.

Forming an American League.

New York Oct. 9.—Bolton Hall has given out a statement concerning the formation of a new organization to be known as the American league. The purpose of the league is to oppose the growing warlike spirit in the United States. A meeting has already been held and a platform adopted which first of all reaffirms the doctrine of the declaration of independence and says that others as well as the people of the United States should come under its beneficence. Its third and last clause says: "We adhere to the American idea that government derives its just powers from the consent of the governed," and the conclusion is: "We are therefore opposed to the use of force in the extension of American institutions."

Judge Adams Seriously Ill.

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 9.—F. G. Adams, secretary of the State Historical society, is dangerously ill, and, owing to his advanced age, fears are entertained that he will not recover. Judge Adams' principal work in this state, and that for which he will be remembered the longest, is his connection with the State Historical society as secretary. This position he has filled twenty-three years, becoming secretary of the society in February, 1876. He is 75 years old.

For Progress in the South.

Huntsville, Ala., Oct. 9.—The southern industrial convention will meet here Tuesday morning. Delegations or representatives from chambers of commerce of the principal cities in the south, in addition to official parties from each of the thirteen southern states, will attend. Gov. William MacCorkle of West Virginia will preside. The discussions will be confined to topics relating to the development of the south, the motto of the convention being "Business—No Politics, no Sectionalism."

Deep Waterway to the Gulf.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 9.—The question of a deep waterway connecting Lake Michigan and the gulf, through the route of the present drainage canal system will be the subject for general discussion at the waterway convention in this city Tuesday. Delegates from every county bordering on the proposed waterway, also from Chicago and St. Louis, will be present.

Iron Ore Shipments Heavy.

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 9.—To Oct. 1 the total iron ore shipments from the lake ranges amounted to almost exactly 13,000,000 gross tons, within 1,500,000 tons of the entire movement of the preceding season, which was by 15 per cent the largest record. Enough more ore will be shipped this fall to make a total of not less than 16,000,000 for the year and perhaps more.

Rainiest Region on Earth.

Cherrapunji, in Assam, northeast of Calcutta, has the reputation of being the wettest place in the earth, the average annual rainfall being 493.15 inches, while it has the record of one month in which 147.17 inches fell. This year seems bound to beat all previous records, 267.84 inches of rain having fallen between Jan. 1 and the middle of June, five months and a half, while 73.79 inches, over six feet of water, fell in a single week.

COUNTING THE CUBANS

Census Taking on the Island
Is to Be Begun on
Oct. 16.

BY CAPTAIN T. B. FRANCIS.

The taking of the Cuban census will be begun on the 16th of this month. The job of counting the Cubans has been turned over to the war department, and Brigadier General Joseph P. Sanger has been appointed director of the census. Victor H. Olmstead is the assistant director.

The preliminary organization of the census bureau for the island has already been formed. Some time ago General Brooke appointed a number of prominent Cubans to act as supervisors of the census. These gentlemen have visited Washington, where they have received detailed instructions as to the coming count of noses in the Pearl of the Antilles. They have returned home to appoint enumerators and assist in dividing the island into districts.

Brigadier General Sanger is a Michigan man who has been connected with the army ever since 1861, when he helped organize a zouave company in Detroit. At the end of the civil war he entered the regular army and has been several times promoted. He spent four years on General Schofield's staff and has served as assistant inspector general of the army.

The new census of Cuba, which will probably be the first one taken with any degree of accuracy, is to be completed on or before Nov. 30. Colonel Sanger will have his office in Washington and Mr. Olmstead in Santa Clara, Cuba. Under the director Mr. Olmstead will have charge of the collection of all information required, will fill vacancies which may occur among the supervisors and will appoint all enumerators and such special agents as may be necessary.

The enumerators are to be commissioned by the secretary of war. They are to collect the information called for in the schedules and in doing so must personally visit each dwelling house in his district and each family and each individual living out of a family. The population of towns and villages must be shown separately from the country districts.

The districts shall not exceed more than 1,500 in the urban and 1,000 in the suburban and rural districts, based upon the best estimates to be obtained.

Enumerators may be removed upon the recommendation of the supervisors. If the assistant director finds any portion of the census is being improperly taken, he can have a new enumeration made. Interpreters may be employed to assist in the work of taking the census.

None of the census officers or clerks can enter upon his duties until he has subscribed to the oath prescribed by the secretary of war.

The enumerators and other officers must complete the work so as to forward their returns to the supervisor of census of the province before Nov. 30.

A penalty of $1,000, or one year's imprisonment, is provided for any person who shall secure any fee for himself for securing the appointment of any person as a census officer.

Penalties are also prescribed for any neglect of duty of officers, perjury and false returns. Heads of families are also to be punished for refusing to furnish information or for furnishing false information, and officials of corporations also for the same offense.

All mail matter relating to the census is to be indorsed "Official business, war department, Cuban census," and carried free of cost, and all telegrams relating to the census shall be free of charge. Penalties are provided for violation of the rule.

The expense of taking the census is to be paid from the revenues of Cuba. The last paragraph of the census order places the military government of the island at the disposal of the census officials. It states:

"The military governor of Cuba, the military and civil governors of the provinces and all civil and military officers will render such assistance to the director, assistant director, supervisors and enumerators of the Cuban census as may be necessary to enable them to carry into effect the provisions of this order."

Colonel Sanger says an important feature of the census is that it is being taken for the people of Cuba as well as for the information of the United States government. It will be so thorough as to be of great value to the people in the future.

COOKING IN STONEWARE.

A Demonstration of the Merits of Kitchen Pottery.

A "bachelor housekeeper" who is endeavoring to bring about the renaissance of kitchen pottery presents its claims after the following convincing fashion in Table Talk:

A kitchen in which pottery appears in plenitude for the various kinds of its capable service wafts an odor of purity and fascinates with a sense of cleanliness. In numerous kinds of cookery it has no equal, and in some there are dishes one might better abandon than attempt to prepare and serve without its aid. Many who are using iron, tin and copper to the exclusion of earthenware do so in ignorance of the perfect adaptability and service of the stone pot.

For the simple forms of boiling, broiling and frying the metals are more convenient, but for baking, pot roasting, braising, stewing and fricasseeing it is far superior to all its rivals. Cooking in the stone pot simplifies the preparation of all the dishes that come under these heads; relieves the cook from close attention and constant stirring to defeat the imperfect action of applied heat and performs its work with unflinching accuracy and without accident. It gives its best and almost exclusive service in the baking oven and under close cover. Few avail themselves of its reliable and easy use, and being, as I declare myself, an experimenting and progressive housekeeper, I wish to recommend it to others who are anxious to learn and know for themselves of its unequalled merits. Any cook will with one demonstration understand perfectly its superior action under the influence of heat, and for such the details of preparation will be necessary in but one case. I shall therefore confine myself to a single recipe and formula.

Procure a large earthen pot with a closely fitting cover of the same material. This may be found in almost any house furnishing store. Make the first attempt with the ordinary and familiar fricassee of disjointed chicken. After preparing, sprinkle each piece with salt and pepper and dredge with a little flour. Lay the pieces singly in the pot, which has been rubbed with a little butter or melted suet. Pour in a pint or more of hot water, just enough to appear toward the surface of the chicken. Dredge the top again with flour, put on the cover and set in the oven. The oven should be very hot for the first 15 minutes, after which the heat should be reduced to the lowest degree that will keep the pot gently shimmering.

At the outset it may be necessary to examine the pot occasionally to acquaint oneself with the action of the oven's heat, but when this is once ascertained the pot may be left undisturbed from the beginning till the dish is about done. Young chickens will require only two hours; older ones, three to four, more water and the slowest possible heat to bring them out tender.

The chicken will be cooked to a point that the meat will easily come from the bone and yet may be served in as perfect form as when laid in the pot. It will have all the richness of a roast without the dryness that quite forbids the open oven baking of a chicken. It will have all the juiciness of the fricassee without any of the wateriness which one wishes to avoid.

Early Short Coats.

The cut shows a smart and useful little demiseason coat of a popular order. It is made in a light tan box cloth ornamented with rows of stitching and fits closely at the back and sides. The shape of the revers and the single breasted front give a graceful and lengthening effect to the figure.

For jaunty short jackets about 21 inches is expected to be a length much in vogue. One fashion that bids fair to attach itself to the modest cloth jacket this season is that of supplying it with a number of extra detachable revers collars to be worn according to the demands of the occasion. These may include velvet of deep rich colors and white satin, and all must be precisely machine stitched.
